

MASTER JUDGES & INSTRUCTORS

PARKER HALL

With more than 20 years of tap experience, Mr. Hall has trained with the best, including Ted Levy, Dr. Buster Brown, and Derrick Grant just to name a few.

His most recent success includes touring as the lead tap dancer in the Riverdance European and American company. His teaching expertise has been commended throughout the years and was featured in the instructional tap video "Funky Rhythm Tap".

KAELYN GRAY

Kaelyn's professional career began in her early 20s as a director and choreographer for Paramount's King's Island and King's Dominion. Soon after, she was a Top 24 Finalist for Fox's hit television show, "So You Think You Can Dance".

She is a member of Dayton's "Tap Factor" company and her tap mentor, Gregg Russell, awarded her with a full scholarship to his "Tap Into the Network" intensive this summer where she will train among the best in the business.
